Show Rules

1. The Breeding Rabbit Division is subject to all rules listed under the general rules. Judging rules will follow the ARBA Standard of Perfection.
2. Judging will begin immediately following the market rabbits on the Thursday of the show. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to be certain that their animal is on the judging table at the time of the show.
3. Incomplete entries will not be accepted. Entries will not be taken at the time of the show.
4. No crossbred rabbits may be shown. All breeds of rabbits to be shown must be found in the ARBA Standard of Perfection.
5. All rabbits entered in the wrong class or by wrong sex will be sifted as well as any rabbits having ear canker, colds, or sore hocks.
6. Rabbits must be tattooed in the left ear.
7. The show chairman will determine classes at the time of entry. In order for an individual breed class to be shown there must be more than 8 rabbits entries by at least three exhibitors. Breeds with 8 or less entries will be grouped as All Other Breeds.
8. Classes will consist of junior bucks, intermediate bucks, senior bucks, junior does, intermediate does, and senior does. Junior rabbit classes will be all rabbits under 6 months. Intermediate rabbit classes will be rabbits 6 months to 8 months. Senior rabbit classes will be all rabbits over 8 months. All ages will be determined as of the day of the show.
9. Animals will be released after the judging is complete.
